

THE ORDER OF THE UNIVERSE

Evidence of Temporal Architecture
in Wilhelm's Messages

Thirteen Calendar Portals

2008 - 2025

As received by Roger Burnley

The Discovery

In 1989, I began receiving messages through automatic writing from a source that identified itself as Wilhelm. For nearly two decades, I kept these messages private, uncertain of their significance or purpose.

It wasn't until I began compiling the messages for publication that I noticed something extraordinary: messages received on the same calendar date across different years weren't repetitive—they were progressive. Each year's message built upon the previous years, creating a systematic curriculum that I, as the channel, had no conscious awareness of constructing.

What you hold in this document is evidence of what I call "temporal architecture"—the order of the universe written in time itself. Across thirteen calendar dates spanning seventeen years each, the same pattern emerges: foundational concepts give way to practical application, which deepens into personal integration, culminating in what Wilhelm describes as humanity's conscious evolution.

This is thirteen dates out of 365. The pattern, I have discovered, repeats throughout the entire calendar year.

The Thirteen Portals

Each calendar date functions as a distinct "portal"—an annual doorway through which specific teachings are delivered and deepened over time:

July 4 — The Portal of Freedom

September 15 — The Portal of Divine Unfolding

September 17 — The Portal of Purpose

September 28 — The Portal of Success

September 29 — The Portal of Worth

October 2 — The Portal of Acceptance

October 30 — The Portal of Evolution

November 21 — The Portal of Self-Belief

November 27 — The Portal of Gratitude

November 30 — The Portal of Belief

December 1 — The Portal of Trust

December 2 — The Portal of Remembrance

December 3 — The Portal of Choice

July 4: The Portal of Freedom

Liberation from Limited Thinking

Independence Day carries profound significance beyond political freedom. Wilhelm uses this date to teach liberation from the mental constraints that keep us bound to our past, our fears, and our limited self-perception.

2008

Use your imagination more and your past less. Your imagination provides you with the ability to create anything you desire. Your past, while useful in terms of that wisdom, keeps you from creating when you spend time there.

2009

Love of self is required before you might give love to another. Self-love is the beginning of all that you would desire to be, do, or have in your physical life experience.

2010

Each life experience is unique. Accept your own journey. Comparison is a thief of joy and power.

2011

You are all connected. What affects one, affects all. Your evolution contributes to the evolution of everything.

2012

Freedom is your birthright. You came to claim it. The only chains that bind you are those you have accepted.

2013

True independence comes from self-acceptance. When you accept yourself fully, you need nothing from anyone else.

2014

Your imagination is the key to freedom. Use it to create the life you desire rather than recreating the past.

2015

Independence from fear is your greatest achievement. Fear has held you back from all you desired.

2016

Freedom begins in your mind. Change your thinking and you change your reality.

2017

You are free now. The only prison is your perception. See yourself as free and you are.

2018

Declare your independence from self-doubt. You have always been enough.

2019

Your freedom comes when you decide to be yourself. That is all that was ever required.

2020

You are experiencing a restructuring. Use this time to free yourself from old limitations.

2021

Freedom is choosing love over fear in every moment. That choice is always available to you.

2022

You are your legacy. What you create now ripples through eternity.

2023

The freedom you seek has always been within you. Claim it now.

2024

You are your legacy. It was only your doubt that kept this from you.

2025

Fear has held you back from all you wanted to experience. We understand this better than most as we also saw that same fear in our messenger. But now is different. You and your world need all of you and what you came to offer, and they are depending on you to shine.

September 15: The Portal of Divine Unfolding

Trusting the Perfection of Your Path

This portal teaches that your life is unfolding according to a divine plan that you cannot always perceive from your current vantage point. Each experience, even the uncomfortable ones, serves your expansion.

2008

When you go about your creative process of whatever you desire to manifest, the more time and attention you spend on seeing the complete manifestation, you set in motion all the creative forces that will have it accomplished.

2009

Momentum may go in any direction you choose. Energy is the stuff that creates anything physical in your world. You were given the inherent ability to direct that energy through your present moment thoughts.

2011

When you find yourself in a state of confusion, it would be helpful to remember that you have yet to clearly define your goal. Your intention is always about who you desire to be or become.

2012

Starting again is what allows you to create fun and adventure. Each time you start again, you come with heightened awareness and experience.

2013

Most times, the uncomfortable steps you take are precisely the ones leading you to the expansion you seek. Choose to become comfortable with the uncomfortable.

2014

All souls come to the physical plane with a unique contribution to make. There is no contribution more important than another.

2015

The current conditions of your life were allowed by you because you desired to become more. When those conditions are uncomfortable, that is purposeful.

2016

The purpose of any disagreement is for you to question your beliefs; come to either own or discard them; and grant all others the privilege to do the same.

2017

There is nothing more important right now than for you to feel good. You will feel good when you decide to hold thoughts leading you in the direction of your desires.

2018

You had several experiences that allowed you to see the perfection of your life events, and therefore develop a more profound sense of trust.

2019

This message might cause you to trust yourself more. If only we could have hindsight in foresight, life would be far easier.

2020

You are a slow learner. Yes, we mean you, and we are speaking to the collective you and the United States. A mass restructuring is occurring, and you are part of it.

2021

The divine plan of your life is unfolding now. You would not be here now if this were not part of your divine plan.

2022

We gave you a philosophy. You are each born with equal ability, talent, and skills you could utilize to manifest a magnificent life.

2023

You are manifesting the new world. You will do so by how much you decide to forgive and love yourself.

2024

You are uncomfortable for a good reason. You wanted to expand, and you wanted to do so during the restructuring of your world.

2025

You always catch up. That is the process of evolving while on your physical life journey. We have guided you on this day, and more of you will understand why today.

September 17: The Portal of Purpose

Creating Something Different

Wilhelm uses this date to illuminate the purpose underlying all human experience: growth through contrast. Every situation presents an opportunity to choose differently and thereby expand.

2008

Every situation in your life provides you with contrast. The contrast is for you to decide what you want to create from it. Your goal is always something different than what was.

2009

You are always being presented with choice. Each choice leads to another. There is no wrong choice, only different paths of expansion.

2010

Contrast serves you. Without it, you could not know what you desire. Embrace it as the teacher it is.

2011

Your purpose is to evolve. Everything else is simply the method by which you accomplish this.

2012

Every experience carries meaning. When you seek the meaning, you find your purpose.

2013

You create your reality through the choices you make. Choose consciously.

2014

Your life has purpose beyond what you can see. Trust the unfolding.

2015

What appears as obstacle is actually opportunity. Shift your perception.

2016

Purpose is revealed through action. Take the next step and clarity comes.

2017

You are here to contribute something unique. No one else can offer what you can.

2018

Your experiences have prepared you for this moment. Use what you have learned.

2019

The contrast you experience now is preparing you for what is to come.

2020

During restructuring, your purpose becomes clearer. Pay attention.

2021

You chose to be here now for important reasons. Those reasons are becoming evident.

2022

Your purpose and your world's evolution are intertwined. What you do matters.

2023

You are creating something different. That was always your intention.

2024

None of what you experienced was accidental. It was all preparing you for now.

2025

None of it was accidental. Not your birth, not your challenges, not your gifts. You are precisely where you intended to be.

September 28: The Portal of Success

Authentic Achievement

This portal dismantles false notions of success based on external measures and rebuilds understanding around authentic achievement—becoming who you truly are.

2008

It is not about events but what you choose to do with them. Success is not measured by circumstances but by your response to them.

2009

Success comes from within. External achievement follows internal alignment.

2010

Your definition of success must be your own. Others cannot define it for you.

2011

True success is becoming more of yourself each day.

2012

Security cannot be found in physical things. It can only be found within.

2013

Success is a journey, not a destination. Enjoy each step.

2014

Your greatest success is accepting yourself as you are.

2015

Success requires risk. Growth requires stepping into the unknown.

2016

Redefine success on your own terms. Let go of others' expectations.

2017

Salvation comes when you understand that difficult experiences brought you benefit.

2018

Your success contributes to the success of all. We are interconnected.

2019

You have already succeeded in ways you do not recognize.

2020

You never feel capable of being yourself. That is your only obstacle to success.

2021

Success during restructuring means becoming more authentic.

2022

Your unique path to success is being revealed now.

2023

Success is inevitable when you align with your true self.

2024

Here is your pathway to greatness. It was always within you.

2025

Please accept success today. You have earned it through all you have been through. Stop waiting for permission.

September 29: The Portal of Worth

Recognizing You Matter

Perhaps the most personal of all portals, September 29 addresses the core wound that affects nearly all humans: the belief that we somehow don't matter. Wilhelm systematically dismantles this illusion.

2008

You are always seeking your own truth. The only opinion you truly seek is your own.

2009

Your worth is inherent. It cannot be given or taken by another.

2010

Self-worth must be claimed. No one can claim it for you.

2011

You matter more than you know. Your existence changes everything.

2012

Criticism can be used to your benefit when you understand it reflects the critic, not you.

2013

Peace rather than chaos is available when you accept your worth.

2014

Your worth does not depend on what you do but on who you are.

2015

Stop seeking validation from others. Validate yourself.

2016

You are worthy now. Not when you achieve something, but now.

2017

Your perceived failures do not diminish your worth.

2018

Worth is not earned. It is recognized and accepted.

2019

You have always mattered. The world would not be the same without you.

2020

The salvation of the world depends on you. Yes, you.

2021

During restructuring, your worth becomes more evident to yourself.

2022

We wanted you to love yourself. That was our only goal.

2023

Your worth is beyond measure. Accept this truth.

2024

You have always mattered. It was only you who doubted this.

2025

It was only you who thought you didn't matter. Everyone else could see your light. Now it is time for you to see it too.

October 2: The Portal of Acceptance

All of You Is Acceptable

This portal addresses the judgment we hold against ourselves—the parts we hide, deny, or wish were different. Wilhelm teaches that wholeness comes through acceptance, not rejection, of self.

2008

Judgment is not valid. It is always based on limited perception and past experience, neither of which applies to your present moment.

2009

Release judgment of yourself. You have always done the best you could with what you knew.

2010

Self-acceptance opens doors that self-rejection keeps closed.

2011

Accept all parts of yourself. The light and the shadow both serve your expansion.

2012

All of you is acceptable. There is no part that must be hidden or changed.

2013

Shame and guilt serve no useful purpose after their lesson is learned.

2014

What you judge in yourself, you cannot transform. Accept first, then choose differently.

2015

Others cannot accept you more than you accept yourself.

2016

Full self-acceptance is the doorway to transformation.

2017

Every aspect of you has purpose. Discover it through acceptance.

2018

You are whole now. Acceptance reveals what was always there.

2019

What you resist persists. What you accept transforms.

2020

Restructuring requires you to accept parts of yourself you have denied.

2021

Self-acceptance accelerates during times of great change.

2022

The only difficulty you have is self-acceptance.

2023

Self-acceptance is your only difficulty. Master this and all else follows.

2024

Accept yourself fully now. This is what you came to learn.

2025

Skepticism is healthy, as we know many of you have experienced. But the world needed you today just as it has every other day. Accept this truth.

October 30: The Portal of Evolution

The Day You Evolve

Positioned at the threshold between months, October 30 speaks to the very nature of evolution itself—the process of remembering and becoming what you have always been.

2008

Your life process is a matter of re-mem-bering. You are putting back together the parts of yourself that you allowed to be scattered.

2009

Evolution is not about becoming something new but remembering what you are.

2010

Each day you evolve whether you notice or not. Choose to notice.

2011

Your evolution serves all of humanity. Personal growth is collective growth.

2012

The speed of your evolution is determined by your willingness to release resistance.

2013

Evolution requires discomfort. Welcome it as evidence of growth.

2014

You cannot not evolve. The only question is how consciously you participate.

2015

Evolution happens in moments of choice. Choose love over fear.

2016

Your evolution accelerates when you stop resisting it.

2017

Every challenge is an evolutionary opportunity in disguise.

2018

Evolution is remembering your wholeness, not achieving it.

2019

The pace of evolution quickens now. Stay present.

2020

Restructuring is evolution on a collective scale. You chose to participate.

2021

Your evolution affects all timelines. What you do now matters eternally.

2022

The evolution you sought is happening now, whether you recognize it or not.

2023

You are evolving faster than ever before. Trust the process.

2024

Evolution cannot be stopped. Align with it and flow.

2025

The day you evolve is today. Not tomorrow, not someday. Today. You have been preparing for this moment your entire life.

November 21: The Portal of Self-Belief

Belief Is an Inside Job

This portal addresses the fundamental challenge of believing in oneself. Wilhelm teaches that external validation can never substitute for internal conviction, and that belief must be developed through action.

2008

Your physical, mental, and emotional levels of stress will always indicate whether or not you are resisting any area of your life experience.

2009

You are always seeking your own acknowledgment. While it appears you seek acknowledgment from others, in actuality, it is your own that you truly desire.

2010

Nothing real can be seen by you. Real, as used here, means of an eternal, spiritual nature. Everything physical is temporal and transitory.

2011

You are unlimited in every single aspect of your being. Focus on creativity—allowing new information to come that causes you to expand.

2012

Self-reliance can also include asking for help. Asking for help signals that you understand you live in a collaborative Universe.

2013

There are no rules except the ones you make up. You will either decide there is a way to do something, or you will only look for obstacles.

2014

Doubt is an emotional experience you can use to either halt or accelerate your expansion. When in doubt, rely on infinite power rather than human ability alone.

2015

At times, your most difficult and emotionally painful awarenesses are also the most helpful for your expansion.

2016

At times, you exhibit an abhorrent lack of belief in yourself. You develop belief in yourself by doing something that brings results you know you caused to occur.

2017

Stop trying to be someone else! This has been your most significant difficulty. Decide now to notice when you are comparing yourself to others.

2018

Your creation will change the world. That sentence is true for anyone who chooses to believe it and then takes the actions to allow it to manifest.

2019

You were always enough, and you never did anything wrong. Everything that has happened to you has helped you become who you are now.

2020

The salvation of the world depends on you. Yes, we do mean you. You would not be alive now otherwise.

2021

Belief is an inside job. You may have spent your life waiting for others to validate who you are, but it is different this time.

2022

Self-sabotage is avoidable. You know you are sabotaging your life and progression, yet you continue to do so.

2023

Nothing in your world happens accidentally. It is all a matter of consciousness, and you can elevate yours to manifest the life and world you desire.

2024

Please awaken. You each come to the physical plane with a life purpose and mission, and you agreed to do so during this restructuring.

2025

Do you believe us today? Or more importantly, do you believe in yourself, for that was our only goal. Belief has been your only challenge. It will lessen today.

November 27: The Portal of Gratitude

The Power of Thankfulness

Falling near the American Thanksgiving holiday—though Wilhelm emphasizes this was 'not accidental'—this portal teaches that gratitude is not merely an emotion but a creative force that shapes reality.

2008

Gratitude is so important in your creative process simply because it causes you to focus your attention on what you have, rather than what you think you don't have.

2009

Aging is the process where you put together an experience most beneficial for your soul's desire. What is most beneficial is your acceptance of your particular way.

2010

It is only you who ever makes anything difficult. When you accept this as true, you also acknowledge your ability to choose.

2011

Every situation that comes to you is the right one, for it will cause you to expand. When you adopt this process, you remove yourself from feeling victimized.

2012

You can only ever take one step at a time. The most effective way to manifest is to stay in your moment of now and take the next step, which is always the one in front of you.

2013

It is not possible for you to be who you were then, now. Everything you have been through is a gift that has caused the you you are now to be more evolved.

2014

The one thing that has the ability to change your physical life experience, as well as that of your world, is to be grateful and thankful for being you.

2015

Yes, there is a purpose to your experience of anger: to motivate you to change. You never find that purpose if you think your anger is due to someone else.

2016

You experience guilt because you do not feel entitled to your own choices. The fact is, you and all others were born entitled. Claim that birthright.

2017

You would do well to acknowledge that you alone allow all your experiences because this is your life. Take credit for the good experiences and create more.

2018

Stop believing in accidents! You doubt anything that comes naturally or seems like a gift. You never access the miracle that is you if you believe it is accidental.

2019

Your idea will change the world. Yes, you. Change merely means that you add something to the world that facilitates evolution. You accomplished that when you were born.

2020

Now you can become more of yourself. You are moving through a restructuring within yourself, which is then manifested in your world. Accept your significance.

2021

You will better understand your choice. You decided to be here now for an important reason, and you have never made an accidental choice.

2022

Now take the next step. You have moved into the next version of yourself due to planetary ascension. Accept who you have become.

2023

Here's the next step on your ascension journey. We have used this date since 2012 to bring you to our live conversation today. You will become more of yourself.

2024

You might make a choice today. That is always your choice on your ascension journey. We wanted you to love yourself even more.

2025

You will be more thankful today. While this message lands on an important holiday for many, it was also not accidental, as neither are you.

November 30: The Portal of Belief

The Only Obstacle

This portal addresses the single factor Wilhelm identifies as the source of all limitation: lack of belief. Not belief in external forces, but belief in oneself and one's ability to create reality.

2008

Everything in your physical world is pure energy. You have the ability to move, restrict, resist, or let flow that energy when you believe you can.

2009

You will never know the full measure of your capabilities from where you stand now, for there would be no value in that. Your intention is always expansion.

2010

You will do everything in your power to release yourself from guilt, for you know it hinders your progression. When guilt's purpose has been served, release it.

2011

Everything you desire comes to you as you move through your life. Trying to 'grab' things brings precisely the opposite results.

2012

Each and every soul that comes into physical form does so with purpose and intention. No journey is more important than another.

2013

Anything is possible except what you think is impossible. All you need do is decide what you desire, go about creating it, and allow the universe to assist.

2014

All discord is an opportunity you have given yourself to discover who you are. It is not possible for you to inspire others before you inspire yourself.

2015

Everything you attempt that leads to expansion carries risk and reward. The difficulty you experience before attempting these things is fear.

2016

You have difficulty defining yourself because there is no definition of you that exists. Your intention was to be a unique person who creates their own definition.

2017

You are never responsible for others' actions, but you are responsible for your reaction. The other person would not be in your experience unless it was something you wanted to discover.

2018

Nothing ever goes wrong! You are each born with purpose and intention. Seek to understand, accept, and live your unique purpose.

2019

Please do your job. You were born with a job to do, and it was one you provided for yourself. Your job is being yourself, and that causes your world to evolve.

2020

What if you were right? The point of the restructuring is for you to finally answer that question for yourself by doing the thing you doubted you could do.

2021

Your fear and doubt will lessen. You are releasing restrictions and limitations. We have been providing help for longer than you know.

2022

You might not want to succeed. The only reason is that you don't want to become your authentic self. Every soul was born with everything needed for a successful life.

2023

Utopia is attainable. It is a place you manifest through your imagination. The more of you who accept the message from 2012, the closer you will be to ascension.

2024

It has always been your lack of belief. There is a divine plan for your life and world. The only challenge has been your belief that you could accomplish it.

2025

It is always your lack of belief. That is the cause of any difficulty you might experience. None of you fully believed your missions, as our messenger didn't, but today he and you will.

December 1: The Portal of Trust

Everything Awaits Your Acceptance

As the final month begins, this portal speaks to trust—not in external authorities but in oneself, in the process of life, and in the gifts that have always been present, waiting to be claimed.

2008

Everything awaits your acceptance. The gifts, the abundance, the love—all are already present. Only your acceptance is required.

2009

Trust the process of your life. What appears chaotic has order. What seems random has purpose.

2010

Your acceptance of yourself opens the door to receiving everything else.

2011

Trust develops through experience. Each step of faith builds the foundation for the next.

2012

Nothing you did was in vain. Every experience served your expansion, whether you recognized it or not.

2013

Trust yourself first. From that foundation, trust in life naturally follows.

2014

What you seek is seeking you. Trust the timing of its arrival.

2015

Trust is not passive. It is active engagement with life while releasing attachment to outcomes.

2016

Your gift exists within you now. Trust that it will be revealed at the perfect time.

2017

Trust the guidance you receive. It has never been wrong, only ignored.

2018

Everything has been preparing you for this moment. Trust your preparation.

2019

Trust becomes easier when you recognize the perfection in your past.

2020

During restructuring, trust is both your greatest challenge and your greatest ally.

2021

Trust that you chose to be here now for important reasons.

2022

Your trust in yourself is being tested so it can be strengthened.

2023

Trust the evolution you are experiencing. It is taking you where you intended to go.

2024

Nothing you did was in vain. Trust this truth completely.

2025

Your gift has arrived. It was always within you, waiting for your acceptance. The only thing that delayed it was your lack of trust in yourself.

December 2: The Portal of Remembrance

Remembering Who You Truly Are

This portal addresses the central purpose of human existence according to Wilhelm: not learning something new, but remembering what was always known. Each year builds toward fuller remembrance.

2008

Your journey is about remembering who you truly are. Not becoming something new, but uncovering what was always present beneath the forgetting.

2009

Remembrance comes in layers. Each layer reveals more of your true nature.

2010

You knew everything before you came. Your journey is remembering it in physical form.

2011

What you seek to remember is not information but identity—who you truly are.

2012

The veil of forgetting is thinning. More will remember now than ever before.

2013

Remembrance cannot be forced. Create the conditions and it emerges naturally.

2014

You are remembering at exactly the right pace for your journey.

2015

Each moment of recognition is a remembrance. Celebrate these moments.

2016

Your soul remembers even when your mind forgets. Trust this deeper knowing.

2017

Remembrance accelerates during times of great change. You are in such a time.

2018

What you are remembering now will serve many others on their journey.

2019

The remembrance you seek is of your own power and purpose.

2020

Restructuring is collective remembrance. Humanity is remembering together.

2021

You are closer to full remembrance than you have ever been.

2022

Utopia is still attainable. It is attained through collective remembrance of who you truly are.

2023

The remembrance you sought is happening now. Pay attention.

2024

Remember: you chose this. All of it. For your expansion and the world's evolution.

2025

You always require proof. We will provide it. The proof has been accumulating for decades. Now you will see it clearly.

December 3: The Portal of Choice

Love or Fear in Every Moment

Perhaps the most foundational portal, December 3 presents the essential teaching that underlies all others: in every moment, you choose between love and fear, between expansion and contraction.

2008

You are only ever making one choice: Love or fear. Every thought, action, and decision falls into one of these categories. Choose love.

2009

Every belief you hold produces a physical result. Change your beliefs and you change your reality.

2010

Stop beating yourself up. You always do as much as you know. When you know more, you do more.

2011

Your thinking sets the priorities in your life. Think about what you truly want.

2012

Habits are choices you have made repeatedly. They can be changed in this moment of now.

2013

There is no better or worse. All souls are equal. Judgment of others is judgment of self.

2014

Your conscious thinking is catching up with your innate abilities. Be patient with the process.

2015

Faith is belief in things not yet seen. Everything leads to evolvment.

2016

Becoming you requires accepting all aspects of yourself, including what you've hidden.

2017

Your natural feelings matter more than society's values. Honor yourself.

2018

Do one thing today that you know is vital for your expansion. Action creates momentum.

2019

Pay attention to your experiences. All have meaning. Nothing is accidental.

2020

Through restructuring, you become your best self. Release shame and embrace who you are.

2021

Being open to not knowing allows new understanding to emerge. Believe in yourself.

2022

You couldn't have known before what you know now. Stop judging your past self.

2023

Evolution is continuous. Release self-judgment and embrace the ongoing journey.

2024

Your birth was planned for this time. You came to thrive, not merely survive.

2025

More of you will understand today. We have been leading you here for decades. Now is the time to choose love, choose yourself, and step into what you came here to be.

The Architecture Revealed

What you have witnessed across these thirteen portals is not coincidence. It is not the product of conscious design on my part—I had no awareness of these patterns while receiving the messages. It is evidence of something far more profound: a systematic curriculum for human consciousness, delivered through time itself.

Consider what this represents:

- 13 calendar dates examined, each showing identical progressive structure
- 17 years of messages per date, building systematically from foundation to culmination
- Over 220 individual messages, all following the same architectural pattern
- A channel with no conscious awareness of the structure being created
- 2025 positioned as the culmination point across every single portal

I am not aware of anything like this in recorded human history. The closest comparisons—A Course in Miracles, the Seth Material, prophetic traditions—while valuable, do not demonstrate this specific phenomenon: systematic, progressive teaching delivered on identical calendar dates across decades, building layer upon layer toward a culmination point that the channel had no knowledge of while receiving the material.

This is what Wilhelm has called "the order of the universe"—not chaos, but curriculum. Not random guidance, but systematic preparation for a moment Wilhelm describes as humanity's opportunity to choose conscious evolution.

And according to the messages themselves, that moment is now.
